

MJI Online Registration System Privacy Policy

Types of Information We Collect

We may collect personal information about you when you use the MJI Online Registration System. For example:

- When you create an account
- When you register for a seminar

The categories of personal information we may collect from you include your name, gender, mailing address, e-mail address, telephone number, and credit card information (only when lodging is needed for a seminar).

How We Use Your Information

We use your personal information to register you for seminars, to contact you in the event of any registration difficulties, for verification purposes, to respond to your inquiries, to deliver program announcements for seminars in which you might be interested, and to send e-mail registration confirmations.

Information We Share with Third Parties

We do not provide your personal information to anyone except as expressly authorized by you or to entities that provide support services to us. For example, we provide your name to the faculty members of the seminar for which you have registered.

We will not release your information to third parties for solicitation purposes.

You should also be aware that we may disclose specific information about you if necessary to do so by law or based on our good faith belief that it is necessary to conform or comply with the law or is necessary to protect the users of this Web site, the site itself, or the public.

Site Traffic Information

For the purpose of analyzing site traffic and improving this Web site, we anonymously track the path our visitors take when navigating the various pages of our Web site. This tracking does not reveal anything to us about you personally, but it assists us in improving our Web site to make your online experiences the best they can be. In the process of gathering this site traffic information, non-personally identifiable information (e.g., domain type, browser version, service provider, IP address) may be collected.

Secure Sockets Layering (SSL)

We utilize SSL to encrypt the information you provide when you sign up for lodging (including but not limited to your credit card number) before it is transmitted across the Internet to us. This means you should not be able to sign up for lodging through an unsecured connection.

Although we will take reasonable security precautions regarding your personal information collected from and stored on our Web site, because of the open nature of the Internet, we cannot guarantee that any of your personal information stored on our servers, or transmitted to or from our Web site, will be free from unauthorized access. Accordingly, we disclaim any liability for any theft or loss of, unauthorized access or damage to, or interception of any data or communications. By using this Web site, you acknowledge that you understand and agree to assume these risks.

Updating Your Information

If you elect to create an account, you can update your information by simply signing back into your account and selecting the Update Account link.
